If I could, I would make internet wrest information services from house people who need housing,

James, age 6, has some ideas on how to make the world a better place. The following:

- Ninja stars • kids getting along
- Playgrounds • treehouses
- hammocks • houseboats
- cool stuff • key pens
- pizzashirts • historic hotels
- chewing gum • lemon tarts
- donuts • bubble tea
- racial harmony • Claude Debussy

Hello Rorschach Theatre!
It can often feel overwhelming to think of how we can effect change in such a broken and sad world ... but we do what we can, where are - we love, accept, forgive and hope.
We look with hope to our Lord and go forward in His strength and His wisdom, ever mindful that we are here to accomplish His purpose - to make His world into the beautiful place He created.

How might I change the world for the better? I have to start with myself. I work daily on staying sober, and perhaps my sobriety will have a ripple effect on the lives of those I love, those I serve in my profession, and on those who enter the rooms (currently the "Zooms").

~~both newcomers and long-timers~~ all seeking their own sobriety. As is often said in the program, "the opposite of addiction is connection." How could that not beget a better world? Nick

First, OK, MOCO. Still.
I have lived in the DC area for a total of 27 years but never got to experience/learn local history the way you have shown it to me. Thank you parent. I feel a greater connection to this place than ever before. DC Statehood. As to making the world better. I confess, I am so tired & the world in the world so large. It is all I can do just to survive sometimes. But I have planted many flowers in my garden. Maybe that's enough.
