Rorschach

THEATRE we are what you see.™

Jenny McConnell Frederick and Randy Baker, Artistic Directors

Through uncommon uses of environment and intimate passionate performances, Rorschach Theatre seeks to lure its audiences beyond the limits of ordinary theatrical experience so that they may discover new elements of their own humanity.

Rorschach Theatre tells stories that allow for innovative design and visceral performances. The company treats productions as “installations” that surround the audience with the world of a play. The work centers on the intersection of magic or impossible moments and every day human experiences. Without proselytizing, it provides a complex, intellectual catalyst for self-exploration of challenging subjects.

Rorschach's newest program - “Psychogeographies” – tells season-long immersive narratives that take participants to lesser-known spots around their city as a story unfolds through letters, artifacts, and objects mailed in monthly chapters.

In addition to its regular season, Rorschach produces “Magic in Rough Spaces,” an annual new play development series; “Klecksography,” an annual new artist development event (for actors, local playwrights, and directors); and “Fight Camp,” a stage combat training program held every summer.

ELDRITCH INVESTIGATIONS: A PSYCHOGEOGRAPHIES PROJECT

Created by Steve Yockey, Kylos Brannon, Jenny McConnell
Frederick, Luke Hartwood, and Jonelle Walker

ELDRITCH INVESTIGATIONS is a seven-chapter, season-long experience across multiple locations in Washington DC.

"With Psychogeographies, Rorschach Theatre excites the mind and ignites curiosity with unique storylines incorporating the fascinatingly rich history of DC."
— DC Theater Arts

Cults and cryptids collide when a curious Washingtonian investigates local unexplained phenomena. Explore the lure of the unknown and its entanglement with DC history in this multi-chapter adventure across the city.

A Psychogeographies project, ELDRITCH INVESTIGATIONS harnesses the power of both the built and natural world to create a visceral piece of immersive storytelling. Each chapter provides instructions to travel to a new curated location in the DC area and a box of artifacts to engage all five senses while exploring each site with story elements such as letters, music, souvenirs, or photos.

This season, Steve Yockey, Emmy-nominated screenwriter (HBO Max's The Flight Attendant) and playwright (Reykjavik, Very Still and Hard To See) joins the creative team behind Rorschach's Psychogeographies Projects. In addition, Yockey's dark comedy Sleeping Giant, will close out the company's Rorschach 23-24 season, and the script's themes of passionate devotion to questionable idols will resonate throughout Eldritch Investigations.

Subscriptions to Eldritch Investigations include the multi chapter experience as well as a ticket to Sleeping Giant in July 2024. Subscriptions to the project can be purchased at rorschachtheatre.com/eldritch.

WHAT IS PSYCHOGEOGRAPHIES?

Hundreds of DC-Area audiences joined us for Rorschach's first two Psychogeographies projects, described by the The Washington Post as "[a] season-long immersive experience, that sends audiences on monthly excursions to lesser-traveled Washington-area sites, where landscapes — together with the contents of curated mailed packages — help conjure a mysterious overarching story that is partly set in those locations."

DC Theater Arts said about the project, "Rorschach Theatre's current production is...an adventure of the mind and, if you wish, the body... The innovative form of art incorporates literature, music, mystery, romance, and DC's highlights and history, all steeped in a hope for a better world... Rorschach Theatre has hit the jackpot with this innovative form of art, incorporating literature, music, mystery, romance, and DC's highlights and history, all steeped in a hope for a better world."

COMING UP THIS SEASON:

HUMAN MUSEUM

By Miyoko Conley

Directed by Randy Baker

April 12 – May 5, 2024

Source Theatre

Set in a future where humans have gone extinct, Human Museum follows a group of robots on Earth that run a museum dedicated to organizing the physical and digital artifacts of human life. On the centenary of human extinction, a sudden radio call upends everything the robots thought they knew about the last days of humanity.

SLEEPING GIANT

By Steve Yockey

Directed by Jenny McConnell Frederick

July 2023 / Location TBA

When a firework-filled marriage proposal goes very wrong, the accompanying explosions wake up something very old that has been sleeping in the nearby lake for thousands of years. What follows are intimate, darkly comic, and sometimes startling vignettes about the lengths people go to when they desperately want to believe in something. Written by the creator of the HBO series THE FLIGHT ATTENDANT.
